

Sample images of a HIMSS Interoperability Showcase™

View entering the front of a Showcase

View entering the front of a Showcase – this unit is referred to as a “Pod Cluster” and the individual areas as a “station.” There can be as few as four or as many as eight stations on a Pod Cluster.

Overhead shot – this is a sample floor layout – it changes with each Showcase depending on the needs and number of participants.

